

How Much Does It Cost To Get To Chicago? 2024 Democratic National Convention

August 19 – 22, 2020
Chicago, Illinois

Delegates are obligated to attend the 2024 Democratic National Convention in Chicago, Illinois. Each delegate to the 2024 Democratic National Convention is responsible for paying their own expenses. Delegates may raise money to offset the expenses. Estimated personal out-of-pocket expenses are itemized below.

Airfare to O’Hare	$250-$500
Hotel for 5 nights	$2,107.35
Food and Incidentals	$360
Total Cost	$2,717.35 - $2,967.35

The estimates above are for planning purposes only. Each delegate is personally responsible for all costs. The Party does not cover these or any convention-related expenses.

Delegate Hotel Room Estimate

Exact pricing has been established for the room blocks at the Palmer House: a Hilton Hotel; the rate will be $359 per night plus tax for a total of $421.47 nightly. Minimum (5) night stay. (Check-in Sunday, August 18 – check out Friday, August 23).

Delegate Travel Estimate

Round-trip fares to Chicago O’Hare are subject to increase over the rates listed below. Transportation to and from the convention center and to various events will be provided. However, independent transportation (taxi, bus, train, etc.) expenses will be the responsibility of the delegate.

City	American	Delta	United
Huntsville	$265	$265	$300
Birmingham	$326	$320	$314
Montgomery	$162	$199	$493
Mobile	$280	$320	$338

Delegate Food & Incidentals Estimate

Breakfast each day will be at no cost to the delegate. Any guests of a delegate must purchase a breakfast ticket package for the week (Mon-Thurs) at a cost of $300. Guest breakfast package will include a basic DNC bus transportation pass, but not a credential. Souvenirs will be sold in many locations and prices will vary.